DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Teaching:

- To be able to comfortably deliver at least three to five modules in the field of knowledge to foundation students and to participate in designing modules and programmes in English Language whenever required to reflect the latest developments in the subject area(s). This should be done in accordance with the University quality enhancement policy and processes, in addition to professional body requirements and with the aim of creating interest and learning amongst students.
- Design and implement appropriate assessment methods corresponding to targeted learning outcomes in the module descriptors, ensure established standards are maintained and timescales adhered to. Provide support, counselling, and tutorials to students.
- Stimulate the students to have the opportunity to be engaged and challenged.
- Provide constructive and timely feedback to students and other stakeholders and advise on areas of concern and suggest improvement.
- Provide general support to students with scheduled office hours, tutorials and follow up on student attendance and progress.

Administration:

- Actively participate in academic and administrative committees formed on programme, school, and university levels.
- Contribute to the administrative/management tasks (i.e., marketing, student recruitment, directing a programme, module co-ordination, etc.) as and when required.
- Contribute to the daily running of the PTE Select Testing Centre as and when required including dealing with customer enquiries.

Additionally, the selected applicant is to undertake any other Teaching & Administrative reasonable duties to commensurate with the nature of the post and as requested by the line manager.

Society Engagement:

- Contribute, where appropriate, to knowledge transfer, leadership, public service, income generation and consultancy activities of the University.

Self-development

- Although conducting research is not a contractual requirement for ELC staff, we highly encourage staff to conduct action research as well as participate in relevant online webinars and conduct frequent peer observations to share best practice.
- Staff members are encouraged to apply for grants for research proposals and projects to strengthen the performance of the individual staff member and the team.
PERSON SPECIFICATIONS

The post-holder should have the following qualifications, skills, and competencies:

- Master’s in TESOL or equivalent.
- A recognised teaching certificate at university level or a minimum of the CELTA or equivalent.
- Fluency in English language - reading, writing, and speaking (ability to teach in English). For those who are not native speakers, a valid English proficiency test document is required.
- A consistent record of teaching general English at reputable institutions.
- A consistent record of teaching in English for Academic Purposes.
- The ability to comfortably teach across the foundation programme (3 – 5 modules) at a range of levels.
- A strong knowledge of English language teaching and EAP specifically.
- Interpersonal, planning, and organisational skills.
- A good team player with the ability to work harmoniously with colleagues and students of all cultures and backgrounds.
- Commitment to high quality teaching and fostering a positive learning environment for students.
- Commitment to continuous professional development and income generation.
- Ability to deal with sensitive information with discretion and to maintain confidentiality at all times.
